

Selbornians Reach Out and Help

These three boys, Brian Kavuma, James Guqaza and Thomas Kolathu reached out a helping hand to a homeless man living on a bench outside Selborne Primary.

They collected clothes and along with Luke Sumner are arranging a monetary collection for him to purchase things he needs. They are in the process of trying to get him a job as well. These are TRUE Selbornians. We salute you for showing compassion.

The question arose "Who are our neighbours, Sir?" Answer " All those that cross our path are our neighbours."

Thank you for brightening up a "Neighbours Day"
